Timely Opportunities

Should You Pay Down Your Home Mortgage Early?

Guaranteed investment strategies can be hard to find given today's low interest rates and volatile stock prices. If you have extra cash on hand that you're looking to invest, a safe bet might be right under your nose — making accelerated home mortgage payments. Here's how this strategy can add up, along with a potential drawback to factor into your decision.

Rethinking Retirement: Coping With Stock Market Volatility

The sooner you take a look at your overall retirement plan, the better off you will likely be in the end. Take time to determine where you could spend less and save more for your golden years. Give some thought to the age at which you want to retire and consider whether that seems reasonable in light of your nest egg. Keep reading for some ideas on where to find extra money that can be stashed away and other factors that are important to a comfortable retirement.

Finance 101

Taxable, Tax-Advantaged, Tax-Deferred and Tax-Free

If your goal is to save money on taxes -- either this year or in the future -- there are several ways to go about it. You don't want to make decisions only because they save taxes. The key is to have an understanding of the tax implications of transactions and factor them into your decision-making process. Here are some important distinctions to help.
